Dear Richard:

I have met the young man described in the attached letter from Tom Schelling and want to call him to your attention. He is a bright, attractive entrepreneurial person who wants to spend several years (not one year as stated in Tom's letter) in the government before going to graduate school. We have a strong interest in him here but in order to widen his options, I told him that I would send his resume around to a number of other people. Would you let me know if you think you might be interested in him and I will have him get in touch with you.

Henry S. Rowen
Chairman
